

Horsing Around

Music and Lyrics by

Andrew M Greene

So they wake me up in the middle of the night. The king needs a stablehand at 3AM? I'm none to happy about it, until I find out what it's for. That nasty Haman is going to get humiliated! Oooh, here he comes now. I'd better get the king's favorite horse ready!

1. Hey there! Hey there,
2. Hey there! Hey there,

Ha - man! Time to turn the ta - bles though it seems un - kind. You'll Hor - sie! Dressed in fin - est lin - en from your head to tail, walk the streets of Shu - shan with that horse be - hind! Try to take the bur - nin' shame.

Ha - man tries to hus - tle you, to no a - vail. Strut your stuff all o - ver town.

Take the reins as you pro - claim: Ka - kha! Ka - kha! Thus shall it be done for the Ha - man shouts it up and down:

one whom the king wants to ho - nor! Prai - ses and glo - ry to Mor - de - chai the Jew! Ka - kha! Ka - kha!

Thus shall it be done! 3. Hey there! Ha - man's daugh - ter! Sit - ting in her win - dow - sill a - bove the square (Hi there!) She's watch - ing the com - mo - tion in the tho - rough - fare. Ha - man's look - ing hot and bo - thered.

(Gasp!) She dumped her cham - ber - pot! He hol - lered: Ka - kha! Ka - kha!

Thus shall it be done for the one whom the king wants to ho - nor! Prai - ses and glo - ry to Mor - de - chai the Jew! Ka - kha! Ka - kha! Thus shall it be done!

Ka - kha! Ka - kha! Thus shall it be done for the one whom the king wants to ho - nor! Prai - ses and glo - ry to Mor - de - chai the Jew! Ka - kha! Ka - kha! Ka - kha! Ka - kha!

Ka - kha! Ka - kha! Ka - kha! Ka - kha! Thus shall it be done!
